

YOU NEED 3 STRIPES BEFORE THE TEST

Blue Stripe = Ready to take
Form Test

Yellow Stripe = Ready to take
Discipline Test

Red Stripe = Ready to take
One-Step Sparring Test

If you want to take Test you need the 3 stripes above.

Blue Stripe - is one of the three stripes the student will need to test. This stripe shows that the student knows their form. When the master directs the student to show the form to the class and he/she performs correctly, the master will give the student a blue stripe indicating that they know their form and is ready for form test.

Yellow Stripe - is one of the three stripes the student will need to test. This stripe is a disciplinary stripe which indicates the student follows the rules, focuses in class, pays attention to the masters, and learns quick learning abilities.

Red Stripe - is one of the three stripes the student will need to test. This stripe shows that the student knows their one-step sparring techniques for their belt test. In which the student has performed it in class and is ready to take their one-step sparring test.
